

Always Disobedient! Still on the Streets!
25 year anniversary of Women in Black, October 7th – 10th, 2016

October 9th 1991 the first time that we stood on the streets of Belgrade – we began our peaceful resistance to war and the Serbian political regime. We are still on the streets...
25 years we have been building our active politics, which is peaceful and non-violent, and based on solidarity, feminism, pacifism/antimilitarism, antifascism, antihomophobia, alter globalization...
25 years of commemorating our program of activism – we invite you to join us!
